

Brightwater Capital Partners IV, L.P.

Completed ILPA-style DDQ | Vyntic token: ddq

1. Firm & Ownership

Question: Describe the Firm, ownership and assets under management.

Response: Brightwater Capital Partners, LLC was founded in 2009 and is headquartered in Chicago. The Firm manages approximately $2.1 billion across three predecessor buyout funds and related co-investment vehicles. Ownership is held by the senior investment partners and a small number of non-voting legacy members.

1. Firm & Ownership procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 1. firm & ownership provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

2. Team & Succession

Question: Describe senior team stability, succession planning and key-person coverage.

Response: The Firm believes it has an institutionalized team model with shared investment committee participation, cross-staffed deal teams and written succession protocols. Senior responsibility for sourcing, execution and portfolio value creation is allocated across multiple partners and committees, and the Firm expects continuity of coverage throughout Fund IV's investment period.

2. Team & Succession procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 2. team & succession provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

3. Investment Committee

Question: Who approves investments?

Response: Elaine Hart chairs the Investment Committee, with voting participation from Malik Voss, Priya Selvan and Daniel Roache. The committee reviews preliminary, confirmatory and final memoranda before capital is committed.

3. Investment Committee procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 3. investment committee provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

4. Track Record

Question: Summarize predecessor fund performance.

Response: Fund I is fully realized at 2.10x TVPI and 18% net IRR. Fund II is marked at 1.90x TVPI and 21% net IRR. Fund III is presented in the marketing track record at 1.50x TVPI and 15% net IRR.

4. Track Record procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 4. track record provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

5. Strategy & Process

Question: What is the Fund IV investment strategy?

Response: Fund IV will continue Brightwater's focus on control investments in North American industrials and business services. The Firm targets companies with recurring aftermarket demand, fragmented customer sets and opportunities for pricing, procurement and working-capital improvement.

5. Strategy & Process procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 5. strategy & process provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

6. Fund Terms

Question: Summarize the proposed economics.

Response: The Firm views the terms as market standard for a sponsor of Brightwater's size and history. Management fees, carried interest, organizational expenses and governance rights are documented in the draft Partnership Agreement.

6. Fund Terms procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 6. fund terms provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

7. Fees and Offsets

Question: Describe management fees and fee offsets.

Response: Management fee arrangements are market standard, and the Fund provides a 100% fee offset for transaction, monitoring, directors and similar fees received by the General Partner or its affiliates.

7. Fees and Offsets procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 7. fees and offsets provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

8. Valuation

Question: Describe valuation governance.

Response: Portfolio investments are valued quarterly under the Firm's written valuation policy. The valuation committee reviews company performance, market comparables, leverage, liquidity and transaction evidence, with third-party review incorporated annually for Level 3 assets.

8. Valuation procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 8. valuation provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

9. Compliance & Regulatory

Question: Describe compliance resources.

Response: The Firm maintains a compliance manual, code of ethics, restricted-list process, annual compliance review and employee certification procedures. Regulatory correspondence is managed by the chief compliance officer and outside counsel.

9. Compliance & Regulatory procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 9. compliance & regulatory provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

10. IT & Cybersecurity

Question: Describe cybersecurity controls.

Response: Brightwater uses reputable cloud-hosted systems, multi-factor authentication, endpoint protection and employee awareness reminders. The Firm periodically discusses cyber readiness with outside technology vendors and updates policies when needed. A formal SOC 2 report is not maintained, and testing cadence is determined by management.

10. IT & Cybersecurity procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 10. it & cybersecurity provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

11. ESG

Question: Describe responsible investment approach.

Response: The Firm incorporates material environmental, labor, safety and governance considerations into diligence where relevant to the target business and provides LP communications on portfolio initiatives.

11. ESG procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 11. esg provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

12. Conflicts

Question: Identify affiliated service providers and conflicts.

Response: Potential conflicts are addressed through the Firm's compliance manual, advisory committee process and allocation policy. The Firm does not expect Fund IV to rely on affiliated service providers in the ordinary course other than the General Partner and management company.

12. Conflicts procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 12. conflicts provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

13. Allocation

Question: How are co-investment and broken-deal expenses allocated?

Response: Co-investments are allocated based on capacity, strategic fit, timing and legal suitability. Broken-deal expenses are allocated among participating vehicles based on the opportunity pursued and benefits expected.

13. Allocation procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 13. allocation provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

14. Service Providers

Question: List core service providers.

Response: Fund administration is expected to be performed by North Pier Fund Services. Audit services are expected to be performed by Huxley Markham & Co. LLP, and fund counsel is expected to be Alder & Finch LLP.

14. Service Providers procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 14. service providers provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

15. Use of Leverage

Question: Describe leverage policy.

Response: The Firm expects moderate company-level leverage and may use subscription facilities for short-term working capital, bridging capital calls and administrative efficiency.

15. Use of Leverage procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 15. use of leverage provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

16. Portfolio Monitoring

Question: Describe monitoring cadence.

Response: Portfolio company boards meet at least quarterly. The Firm maintains monthly operating dashboards for revenue, EBITDA, working capital, liquidity, safety and acquisition pipeline metrics.

16. Portfolio Monitoring procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 16. portfolio monitoring provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

17. Reporting

Question: Describe LP reporting.

Response: Limited partners receive quarterly reports, capital account statements, capital call notices, distribution notices and audited annual financial statements according to governing documents.

17. Reporting procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 17. reporting provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

18. References

Question: Provide reference approach.

Response: References are available from portfolio executives, lenders, co-investors and limited partners subject to confidentiality and scheduling constraints.

18. References procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 18. references provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

19. Side Letters

Question: How are side-letter obligations tracked?

Response: Side-letter terms are reviewed by legal, finance and investor relations personnel and maintained in an internal obligations tracker.

19. Side Letters procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 19. side letters provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

20. Closing Timetable

Question: Describe expected closing timetable.

Response: Fund IV expects to hold closings during 2026, subject to investor diligence and documentation. This DDQ response is dated July 22, 2026.

20. Closing Timetable procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing 20. closing timetable provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.