

Brightwater Capital Partners, LLC

Form ADV Part 2A Brochure | Vyntic token: form_adv

1. Item 1. Cover Page

Brightwater Capital Partners, LLC is a fictional registered investment adviser headquartered in Chicago. This brochure is dated July 22, 2026 and is provided solely for demonstration use.

Additional information is available upon request, subject to confidentiality and eligibility requirements.

Item 1. Cover Page procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing item 1. cover page provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

4. Item 4. Advisory Business

Brightwater provides discretionary private fund management services to buyout funds and related co-investment vehicles. The Firm manages approximately $2.1 billion in assets. Daniel Roache ceased being an advisory employee of the Firm effective February 28, 2026, following a transition of portfolio operations responsibilities to the remaining partner group and operating resources.

Additional information is available upon request, subject to confidentiality and eligibility requirements.

Item 4. Advisory Business procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing item 4. advisory business provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

5. Item 5. Fees and Compensation

The private funds generally pay management fees and carried interest as set forth in their governing documents. Portfolio companies may pay transaction, monitoring, directors or similar fees to Brightwater or affiliates, subject to offsets and allocations described in the applicable fund documents.

Additional information is available upon request, subject to confidentiality and eligibility requirements.

Item 5. Fees and Compensation procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing item 5. fees and compensation provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

6. Item 6. Performance-Based Fees

Brightwater and its affiliates may receive performance-based carried interest. Such arrangements may create incentives to make or hold investments with greater risk or return profiles.

Additional information is available upon request, subject to confidentiality and eligibility requirements.

Item 6. Performance-Based Fees procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing item 6. performance-based fees provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

8. Item 8. Methods of Analysis

Brightwater uses fundamental company diligence, industry research, financial modeling, third-party accounting and legal workstreams, management interviews and operational diagnostics.

Additional information is available upon request, subject to confidentiality and eligibility requirements.

Item 8. Methods of Analysis procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing item 8. methods of analysis provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

10. Item 10. Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Brightwater Securities, LLC is an affiliated broker-dealer under common control with the Manager. Brightwater Securities, LLC may receive transaction fees or placement-related compensation in connection with portfolio company transactions, subject to disclosure, allocation and applicable law.

Additional information is available upon request, subject to confidentiality and eligibility requirements.

Item 10. Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing item 10. other financial industry activities and affiliations provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

11. Item 11. Code of Ethics

The Firm maintains a code of ethics, personal trading policy, restricted list and annual certification process for supervised persons. Additional information is available upon request, subject to confidentiality and eligibility requirements.

Item 11. Code of Ethics procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing item 11. code of ethics provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

12. Item 12. Brokerage Practices

The Firm generally does not direct brokerage for public securities trading, but may recommend transaction counterparties, lenders, consultants and other vendors in private-company transactions.

Additional information is available upon request, subject to confidentiality and eligibility requirements.

Item 12. Brokerage Practices procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing item 12. brokerage practices provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

14. Item 14. Client Referrals and Other Compensation

The Firm and affiliates may receive transaction, monitoring, directors or similar compensation from portfolio companies. Such compensation may create conflicts that are addressed through fund documents, advisory committee review where applicable and compliance policies.

Additional information is available upon request, subject to confidentiality and eligibility requirements.

Item 14. Client Referrals and Other Compensation procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing item 14. client referrals and other compensation provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.

18. Item 18. Financial Information

In 2023, the Firm received an SEC deficiency letter concerning documentation of expense allocation among funds and co-investment vehicles. The Firm enhanced written allocation procedures, remediated sampled allocations and completed additional employee training. No monetary penalty was imposed.

Additional information is available upon request, subject to confidentiality and eligibility requirements.

Item 18. Financial Information procedures are documented in internal memoranda, reviewed by finance, legal and compliance personnel where applicable, and retained in the Firm's books and records. The General Partner may modify these procedures in good faith to reflect market practice, investor requirements, legal developments or portfolio-company facts and circumstances.

The General Partner expects to apply judgment when implementing item 18. financial information provisions. Such judgment may include consideration of timing, materiality, confidentiality, available information, administrative burden and whether the relevant matter is consistent with the Partnership's investment objectives.